POINT NO. 1

Pure dust-free tobacco leaf is fed to Modern Machines in Model Factories and no soiled human hand comes into contact with the cigarette during the process of manufacture.

POINT NO. 2

Machine-Made Cigarettes are uniformly well made. Each paper receives its proper quota of tobacco leaf and is rolled to the correct degree of "tightness". This Uniformity is impossible to attain under any other process.

ODDS AND ENDS.

MAINLY SCISSORS LOOT.

The Duke.

The King's sons are barred by the law of the land from entering into trade or professions other than the Navy and Army. Because of this they are granted "salaries" through the Civil List—the Duke of York on his marriage received £25,000 a year. There is one job they may take—Viceroy in one of the Dominions.

5d. for 1d.

People putting pennies in automatic stamp-vending machines at Gloucester have been getting 4d.
back instead of a stamp, and as the word went round, business has been brisk. The Post Office, however, has ordered a mechanical diagnosis of all the stamp machines in the city. "There is no such thing as automatic morality," was the comment of a General Post Office official. "These machines were provided for the convenience of the public, but unfortunately the public regard them as legitimate prey." He added that the question of faulty machines was receiving the serious consideration of the Postmaster-General.

Left-Handed Guards.

Why are the seven Guardsmen in the poster, "Trooping the Colour," issued by the Underground Railway, drawn as left-handed men? A correspondent who asked the question pointed out that in this poster the officer is depicted with his sword sloped on the right shoulder, but all his seven men have their rifles at the "order" at their left sides. Underground traffic officials were mystified when questioned on the matter, though one ventured the suggestion that the figures "might have some symbolical meaning." The department which decides on the posters, which shall be exhibited, which was also appealed to, replied that it could "give no information" as to why the Guardsmen should be left-handed. It also confessed that it had not noticed that they were.

The Tale of a Tailor.

A tale of a garden, a bucket and a matronly "old" lives beside a lily-pond, where she receives many visitors, eating some, and sending others packing with a dose of her venom. She was lately called upon by a party of baby mothers, attracted by the water.
The Morning Post tells us: "They came to a stop as they beheld, in evident curiosity, a large worm wriggling in and out of her cavernous mouth. All save one of the chicks decided to retire. The one brave heart advanced boldly, and began pecking at the worm.

A lively tug-of-war ensued. But it was the toad that ate the worm, and the small bird, as if fearing a like fate, now beat a scared retreat from the toad's rolling eyes and flashing tongue.

"Shall" and "Will"

It is Sir James Barrie who makes his hero in "When a Man's Single" reply to the editor who inquires whether he has got over the "shall"
and "will" difficulty. "No, and I never will." Sir James himself has surmounted it, but many distinguished Scotsmen still cling to the location which seems odd to English ears, observes the Daily Chronicle. Mr.
Bonar Law, writing to the "Man" of the Glasgow Central Division Unionist Association, says:—"It is very unlikely that I will be able to attend this session." That was written probably out of compliment to his Scottish constituents, for the ex-Premier is not a pure Scotsman, though he had a Scottish mother and married a Scottish wife.

The Old Slave Tree in Cape Town.

There is an old tree in Cape Town, in Church Square, over 250 years old, and all that remains of it to-day is the stump, to which is affixed a brass plate and an inscription, giving an outline of its history.
It is a most historic landmark, as it was there, before the days of Jan van Riebeeck. To this tree slaves were brought, and placed on tables for exhibition and sale. The slaves were kept in the old Supreme Court building, just opposite the old tree, and it is not difficult still to picture the once familiar scene.
Slavery was abolished in 1838, but the old slave tree stood and braved the storms till Nov. 9, 1916, when it was cut down, as it was considered unsafe. The brass plate was affixed by the owner of a store which, until the tree was cut down, had always been advertised as
"under the old fir tree."

The Mystery Towers.

The famous "Mystery Towers" which obviously bear upon the question of coast defence, especially of deep-water channels, have been brought before the public again by the proceedings of the Royal Commission on Awards & Inventions. It was, for some reason, agreed that the purpose for which the towers were built should not be divulged, but only communicated on a scrap of paper to the Commissioners themselves. Why all this secrecy? I thought that D.O.R.A. was dead, says Truth.
The purpose for which the towers
now at Shepperton and off the Nab, were made is a matter of common knowledge to all foreign Powers, and to a large proportion of the British public—as a matter of fact, by all of them who take any interest in the matter, now that five years have elapsed since they were likely to be of any use whatever.

Wonderful industry.

With the typewriter, as with most other inventions, there is a dispute as to who was really first, writes James H. Collins in The Business Woman. The idea of a machine that would write had been in the air 100 years or more when Christopher Latham Sholes began turning it over in his inventive mind sometime 44 1866. Others had built machines that would write. "Patents were taken out for writing machines in England as early as 1714, and in America in 1829; but none of these machines were ever brought to the point where they were manufactured and sold to the public. Sholes was the first man to bring a writing machine to the point where a manufacturer could take it up, and 1873 is regarded as the birth year of the typewriter, because some time in April of that year a contract was made with E. Remington & Sons, at Ilion, New York, to take over his patent. Both the contract and the exact date have been lost; but they marked the beginning of an industry which has meant so much to women economically and in other ways.

Liberal Pastor.

Dr. Grant, of the Episcopal church of New York, in a sermon declared, among other things, Jesus was nothing but man, and that belief in Biblical miracles is a religion of "superstition, witchcraft and taboo." He was asked by Bishop Manning to retract or to resign his post, to which he issued a spirited but courteous reply holding fast to what he had already declared, and claimed for himself the right of thinking and interpreting independently. The controversy between the prelates brought in Dr. Holmes of New York, who, in his spirited defence of Dr. Grant, writes that "Dr. Grant merely said what every liberal pastor and scientific thinker has known for years. The virgin birth is not only untrue, it is the legend of Jesus' conception is an assault to motherhood because it implies that there is something which is vulgar and unclean about human birth. Orthodox Christianity is dead in Europe and is dead in everything. The churches are dying. I am glad to see them die." Bishop Manning did not take any further steps and let the matter drop.

ITEMS FROM FAR AND NEAR.

Loss of hair is believed to have caused depression and led to the suicide of Sidney Sperry, a Cheltenham painter.

For about 100 studio remainders, consisting of small landscapes, by the late Benjamin Williams Leader, R.A., a sum of £8,176 was realised at Christie's.

Mr. J. Kelsall is retiring from the office of parish clerk and sexton at Marple, Cheshire, after 24 years' service. He was appointed by a former Bishop of Chester, and is now over 80.

Following rebukes administered by both President Harding and Mr. Hughes, Secretary of State, the Republican National Committee have formally withdrawn the statement, which they circulated, charging Great Britain and France with "bullying" the United States out of the expenses of the American Army of Occupation on the Rhine.

General surprise was created by the victory of Major Cuyler's Blundell in the race for the "Machester" Cup. Lord Derby's Silurian, the favourite, was second, and Mr. J. Hardy's Beauregard third.

As a result of the strikes in Belgium, the Government have ordered the mobilisation of four new classes of the Railway Battalion, about 12,000 men, for service in the different depots. The Government seem determined not to give way to the strikers.

When the Committee of Inquiry into the question of Domestic Service was renamed, additional reasons for the objection taken by many girls to domestic service were given by witnesses, together with suggestions for making the occupation more attractive.

While playing lawn tennis at the Carlton Club, in Birkbeck Road, Dulwich, a member, Mr. Phillips, living at Home Hill, was suddenly seized with illness and died on the court. Mr. Phillips was about 60 years of age, and it is thought that heart failure was the cause of death.

HONGKONG'S ATTRACTIVE EXHIBIT.

LONDON COMMITTEE

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, July 12. For the Empire Exhibition progress with the Malay pavilion in June has been good. The construction of drains and foundations is practically complete; also the construction of flooring.

It has now been settled that Hongkong will be represented by an attractive exhibit on a site allotted. A London committee has been formed and their architect is preparing the design and plans.

THAT NAVAL BASE.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE QUERY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, July 12. In the House of Commons replying to Mr. Hope Simpson, the Home Secretary, Mr. Bridgeman said that the Government had not received any communications from the Governments of the United States and Japan with regard to the naval base at Singapore.

Commander Wedgwood Benn asked were the American or the Japanese Governments informed at the Washington conference that Britain intended to construct that dockyard.

Mr. Bridgeman said the question should be put to the Foreign Office.

CHINA'S GOOD FAITH.

REASSURING FOREIGN FINANCIERS.

LONDON, July 12. Mr. Chao Hsin-chu, Chinese Charge d'Affaires, writing in the Asiatic Review, says that more freedom must be given in China to individual development. Harmony and inter-working between capital and labour are vital in order to avoid the incentive to Bolshevism. Mr. Chao urges preparation for the advancing wave of industrialism and advocates building railway lines, assuring foreign financiers that China's Government will afford guarantees for loans.

WASH AMAH'S DEATH.

CORONER PROBES KOW-LOON MYSTERY.

The death of a wash amah employed by Mr. C. D. Lambert, locomotive engineer of the Kowloon-Canton Railway, was inquired into at the magistracy yesterday afternoon by the Coroner (Mr. J. R. Wood) and a jury consisting of Messrs. R. H. Chappell, M. McGregor and W. A. Duce. The woman was found dead in her bed in her room at No. 3A Railway Quarters, Kowloon, under suspicious circumstances on June 14.

Medical evidence given by Dr. W. B. Moore who made an examination of the body at the Kowloon Mortuary on June 14, showed that there were two bruises on either side of the bridge of the nose, from which the witness inferred that there had been undue pressure on the deceased's eyes. There was also the mark of a cloth having been drawn tightly across the corners of the mouth, passing round the neck and tied under the right ear and a lacerated wound on the inner side of the lower lip which was partially torn from the gum. This he thought must have been done in a struggle. The deceased's tongue was arched as if forced to the back of the throat, and there was bruising on the upper part of the chest, chiefly on the left side. There was a small wound on the fourth finger of the left hand, the skin being torn upwards, towards the point of the finger, and there was a faint indentation of the finger such as would be caused by the wearing of a ring. He found considerable bruises on the top and side of the head and the lungs were congested. The cause of death, in his opinion, was suffocation due to the tongue being pressed into the throat. He could not say how long the woman had been dead as the body was cold and stiff when he examined it.

Dr. W. J. Woodman gave evidence about his visit to the ## FAMILY NEEDS.

WHY A SHROFF TOOK TO THEFT.

Two months' imprisonment on each charge was the sentence meted out by Mr. J. R. Wood this morning to an assistant shroff of the Wing Sang pawnshop, Yuenai, who was found guilty of larceny of four pieces of cloth valued at $8 and unlawfully converting to his own use another five pieces between April 12 and June 26.

According to Divisional Inspector Lanigan, who prosecuted, defendant was discharged from the firm before the offence was discovered. Defendant's excuse was that he wanted money to pay his family. If he wanted to steal, he pointed out, he could have misappropriated large sums which passed through his hands. As evidence of his honesty he referred to his visits to the shop after his dismissal.

SIX MONTHS' JAIL.

AMERICAN SMUGGLING ARMS.

MAGISTRATE'S STERN REMARKS.

Glen Russell Price, described as an employee of the s.s. "President Madison" appeared before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning charged with unlawfully possessing two Smith and Wesson revolvers and 200 rounds of ammunition.

Sub-Inspector Spear, outlining the case, said that Price left the Kowloon wharf premises yesterday morning carrying a parcel. Revenue Officers A. W. Grimmett and W. Ward were outside and their suspicions were aroused. R. O. Grimmett halted defendant but instead of stopping, the latter ran away towards Tsim Tsa Tsui wharf where he threw the parcel into the harbour. The officers caught up with him and found two revolvers inside his trousers. Later in the day, a diver recovered the parcel which was found to contain the ammunition.

Asked what he had to say, Price said he wished to explain. Early in the morning, while he was on the gangway, a Chinese dressed as a waiter approached him and asked him to take the arms to the ferry. This was his first trip out and he did not realise the gravity of the offence, being under the impression that he was merely committing a breach of American city rules which required a permit to carry revolvers. "I was to carry the arms to the ferry for which I was to receive a couple of dollars," added defendant. As to possession, he wished to deny, absolutely, that the arms were his.

His Worship asked defendant if he threw one parcel into the harbour to which he replied: "Yes, Your Honour. I lost my head and thought I would get the damned stuff away."

His Worship remarked that this amounted to a plea of "guilty" to which defendant rejoined that he pleaded guilty to the arms being in his possession, but he denied that he was smuggling. His Worship suggested that a plea of "not guilty" could be recorded, whereupon Price said that he admitted possession but did not realise the gravity of the offence till he was told "by the Customs officials at the Water Police Station." He added that the Chinese who handed him the arms told him that they were intended for an American friend in China.

Mr. Wood, addressing defendant, said that he had committed a very serious offence. What he had deliberately done was to help other people land arms here, which he was not allowed to do. It was a very important thing for the authorities to have control of all arms as conditions across the border were disturbed. Only a few days ago a train had been held up. It was men like defendant who were behind all the trouble, providing these people with arms. He had had to deal severely with other ships' seamen like defendant, and he would impose sentence of six months' hard labour without the option of a fine.

In our advertisement columns will be found particulars of the auction of Mr. Silva Netto's effects by Messrs. "Lummett Bros." at "Belmont" No. 63 Robinson Road at 11 a.m. on July 17. Two Maxwell cars are among the items added to the notice.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A case of small-pox, two cases of enteric fever and two cases of cerebro-spinal fever were reported yesterday. All were Chinese.

Norma Talmadge is at the Star to-day, in "The Sign on the Door." The picture shows the troubles which arise when a girl who has committed an indiscretion in her youth, marries a man of high character and social position. How things right themselves in the end is a story well told and should make a very entertaining picture.

Two Chinese were each fined $1 by Mr. C. D. Melbourne this morning for causing an obstruction between Blake Pier and the "Star" ferry wharf. Yesterday Detective Sergeant Elston prosecuted a number of coolies and boat-women who were bound over for the same offence. Several complaints have been made by European offices in the vicinity that these people blocked the pavement.

Everything points to the Promenade Concert at Volunteer Headquarters on Saturday July 21, being a great success. In addition to the band of the King's Regiment, the following are advertised to take part: Mrs. N. Matheson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Collett, and Messrs. G. Skinner, I. A. Zelenksky, W. H. Hannibal, V. R. Jones, and Geo. Grimble. Tickets are on sale at the Anderson Music Store, and Volunteer Headquarters.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A Reuter cable from Capetown states that it is officially announced the Prince of Wales contemplates visiting South Africa at an early opportunity.

Among the passengers who left Hongkong yesterday by the s.s. "Empress of Asia" were Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Webb Anderson of W. S. Levan Society's Medical Mission at Fatsan, who leave for England on retirement after twenty-four years' work in the neighbouring province of Kwangtung.

DECREASING EXPORTS?

MANCHESTER CLOTH
MARKET.

Whilst actual business has remained quiet there has been no reason to complain of lack of inquiry. China merchants have had plenty of offers to make, but only a small proportion of them came approximately near to manufacturers' ideas. Business is reported to be fairly good at Shanghai, and it is known that certain sorts are in plenty moderate supply. The transactions of the week in shirtings, sheetings, and Mexicans—all of which have moved in small lots—will, however, do very little in the way of replenishment.

Accounts of India demand are uniformly of a doubtful character.

make turnover possible. Sellers who based their prices on the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners' scale have been left severely alone—practically boycotted, in fact—after they had given out their quotations. Meanwhile, cheap sellers have picked up the lion's share of what little trade was offering. Prices quoted by these latter salesmen prove that the word "loyalty" is not included in their lexicon. The Federation, however, is understood to have received encouraging reports as to the determination of members to stand by their minimum scale. Egyptian spinners have maintained their position in the market.

No. 3 Group, who are low down in the league, secured a win over No. 11 Platoon by two goals to one.

The "Emperor" gave a picture of no less terrifying of the Pacific coast where, he said, the Japanese were establishing an asylum as a refuge against the day of China's wrath, and of the Southern States where more than 11,000,000 negroes presented an ominous possibility.

Pat O'Dowd met Mike Casey

"How do Oi know?" repeated Casey. "Well, Oi've just overheard a dirty policeman telling the magistrate all about it!"

"So you're engaged to Miss Oldash, Percy?" said Algernon, extending his hand.

"H'm! Well, old man," continued Algernon, "I really scarcely know whether to congratulate you or not. I know she's a very exacting dame, although she's got plenty of coin. You'll have to give up theatres, you know, and also smoking, drinking, and—"

The management of the World

There is no gainsaying the fact that "The New Leather Pushers" series is the most popular show-length features ever shown in the colony. What Kid Roberts is going to do in the next "round" is looked forward to with interest. However the beauty of this series is that each one is complete in itself. If you miss one you can get it with the rest and not be wondering what it is all about.

Barron G. Collier.

Barron G. Collier, advertising magnate and Deputy Police Commissioner, has leased for the summer the famous Meneck Villa, the magnificent estate of Frau Bertha Krupp works, in Essen. The estate is located in Baden Baden and is valued at $25,000,000.

Mrs. Corbett Ashby.

Mrs. Corbett Ashby, noted suffrage leader, has been elected President of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance; at the convention held in Rome, Italy. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, former President, would have been unanimously re-elected had she not declined to serve because of her advanced years.

For the first time in American naval history the U. S. S. "Maryland," America's greatest battleship, mounting eight 16-inch rifles in her main battery, is to discharge her missiles at a target, 120 feet long and 40 feet high, stationed over the horizon 25,000 yards, or 14 miles away, to test the accuracy and dispersion of heavy naval rifles. As the shells at that range will come down almost vertically and as the target will have no breadth, the possibility of hitting it is minute. The "Maryland" is the only American ship having a gun elevation of 30 degrees, though the newly constructed West Virginia and the "Colorado" will have similar elevation. The maximum range of these ships is 30,000 yards or about 7,500 miles further than any other American ships, though English vessels have equal range. The firing, which will be held on June 7, off Piney Point, Chesapeake Bay, will have for its object an effort to get Congress to overrule President Harding and order the elevation of guns on other American vessels.

Captain G. W. Evans.

Having handled $600,000,000 without loss of a single cent, Captain George W. Evans, Chief Disbursing Officer of the Department of the Interior, retired on July 1 after completing 39 years of continuous service. He has received laudatory letters from President Harding, ex-President Wilson and others. He was appointed messenger in the department by President Lincoln in 1864. During his term of office he has adjudicated $8,000,000,000 of Government affairs.

Mrs. Helen M. R. McAlpine.

Mrs. Helen M. R. McAlpine, 26 years old, has been sentenced to 10 years imprisonment on her plea of guilty to the charge of forging $20,000 in cheques she claimed she was forced to cash by messages from the spirit world. These cheques were endorsed and cashed by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Katherine McAlpine, who also was sent to prison for 10 years. The younger woman is the mother of three children.

American tourists in England are flocking by the hundreds to the picturesque cottage, near London, where John Milton, the blind poet, dictated to his faithful daughter his wonderful epic—"Paradise Lost" and "Paradise Regained."

Dr. Hugh S. Cummins.

Dr. Hugh S. Cummins, Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, has sailed to make a study of sanitation and health conditions abroad.

Barricaded in his little house, Frank J. Sage, alias Frank Miller, a Jersey "two gun bad guy," killed two police men and wounded two others when they sought to arrest him for participation in a $19,000 payroll hold-up. His woman companion, Mrs. Martha Muear, alias Miller, is alleged to have killed one of the policemen and to have loaded the pistols, while Sage kept up the fight. He was not arrested until overcome with tear-gas bombs. Infuriated policemen beat him terribly and would have killed him but for the pleading of Deputy Police Chief Thomas Wolfe, who captured him.

Mrs. Pearl Surtees.

Mrs. Pearl Surtees, pretty widow of Montreal, Canada, knew all the time that Robert Edwards, Ottawa financier, loved her, but he was too bashful to speak in person, and she went around the world on a cruise aboard the liner "Samarra." When the big ship was nearing San Francisco she received the proposal by wireless. When the ship reaches New York the world tour for her will end in her marriage.

Mrs. George Toombs and part of her family.

Mrs. George Toombs, aged 52, is now the mother of her 21st baby; fifteen of her children are living to-day. She has run out of names and the infant hasn't, therefore, been named yet. Mrs. Toombs is shown here, with her latest baby, surrounded by part of her large family.

Marie Price.

John Lewis Whitfield.

When Policeman Dennis Griffin, arrested John Lewis Whitfield on a charge of bootlegging, Whitfield asked the officer to permit him to go into his home to change his clothing. He secured a pistol and entered his automobile to drive the policeman to the station. On the way he shot Griffin to death and burned his body, lying it in a shallow grave, where it was found later. Then Whitfield picked up his female companion, Marie Price, and fled. Whitfield was captured but escaped. The woman was held.

The Cuban gunboat Cuba, commanded by Commander Rodolfo Villegas, anchored in New York Harbour for a month. The little Southern Republic's warship is up to the minute in every respect.

CHINA.

LONDON, July 11.
With reference to the prospects of an Anglo-American agreement regarding the better protection of foreigners in China, the Daily Telegraph's diplomatic correspondent learns that an intimation has reached London that, subject to certain reservations on points of detail and a general proviso safeguarding the principle of Chinese sovereignty, the views of Washington approximately agree with those held in London.

ARMS TRAFFIC IN THE FAR EAST.

NAVAL BASE.

LONDON, July 11.
Viscount Grey, referring to the proposed naval base at Singapore, thought it ought quite frankly to be admitted that the contingency in view was the possibility of war, in the future, however remote, with Japan. He trusted that the memory of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance would remain in both countries and make a conflict exceedingly unlikely. Both were members of the League of Nations and could not go to war against each other without violating their word in signing the covenant. Was the Government perfectly persuaded that a Singapore dock was a better way of protecting Australia and New Zealand than naval bases in those countries themselves? In the unlikely contingency of an Anglo-Japanese conflict was it humanly absolutely certain that it would be a racial conflict in which the United States would be involved on the same side? He was not at all clear that to spend money on a Singapore dock would be the best way to prepare for that contingency, or that it was not going to make matters worse. He suggested that it was calculated to evoke corresponding expenditure by other Powers and lead to further increases, and thus defeat, in the long run, the very objects which the Washington agreements were designed to secure.

Lord Grey agreed as to the necessity for increased arm expenditure but referred in grave terms to the beginning of competition in armaments with France. If European competition in armaments proceeded it would lead to another war in which all would go down together. He urged making the League of Nations more of a reality.

Lord Salisbury, replying to Lord Grey, declared that there was no suggestion whatever, so far as he knew, from any Government relative to Singapore.

The motion was negatived without a division.

The report of the Board of the British Empire Exhibition for the month of June, records a steady progress and confidently forecasts that everything will now work harmoniously to a conclusion of the great task of making the exhibition a complete success. The report speaks of the gratifying evidence of progress and enthusiasm at home and in the Dominions and Colonies. ## BETTING TAX.

OFFICIAL PLAN TO YIELD
£10,000,000.

When the Select Committee on the proposed betting tax resumed its sittings at the House of Commons, under the chairmanship of Mr. H. S. Cauley, K.C., M.P., the Earl of Jersey, senior steward of the Jockey Club, gave his "personal views" on various aspects of betting, and asked that he might have an opportunity to give further evidence later.

Members of the Committee were to be the guests at Epsom of the Jockey Club so that they might see at the Derby exactly how betting is carried on.

Lord Jersey said that the Jockey Club takes no cognisance of any disputes or claims regarding bets, but it would exclude from the racecourse defaulters reported by the committee of Tattersall's.

If betting were made illegal, racing might still be carried on, but he saw no possibility of preventing people from betting on races. The Jockey Club had no means of estimating how much money changed hands on racecourses in betting.

The Hon. Trevor Bigham, assistant to the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, said there are in the Metropolitan Police area about 800 credit book-makers—people with offices—carrying on a legal business, and about 950 street bookmakers who employed about 5,000 other persons and whose business was illegal. London was thus "riddled with street betting," especially in some districts, to combat which the uniformed policeman was practically useless, whereas few other policemen were fitted for the work, which was not popular in view of public opinion that betting was not a real crime. The public would not help the police in cases of street betting.

Mr. Bigham said he thought the increased number of prosecutions was due to increased betting, which was noted in 1922, although there was less money about and more unemployment. He did not think it possible to stop betting by law.

Sir George Hamilton, M.P., said that to his mind the chief evil of betting was its effect on women.

Sir George Hamilton, Chairman of the Board of Customs and Excise, declared that if a betting tax were imposed ready money betting off the course would have to be legalised. He suggested:

A uniform percentage rate of duty on all bets with professional bookmakers, with the ordinary revenue form of control.

An excise licence of £10, renewable annually, for every person carrying on the business of receiving or negotiating bets on horse-racing, football, or any other event, whether in an office or on a course.

An excise licence of £20, renewable annually, for every bookmaker's office.

A 10 per cent duty on all bets.
